

1845 In THE MUTUAL BENEFIT 1901 LIFE INSURANCE CO.

OF NEWARK, N. J.

After Two Years' Premiums Have Been Paid

Your Policy is:

1. Non-forfeitable.
2. Has Cash Value.
3. Loan Value.
4. Paid-up Insurance.
5. Extended Insurance that works automatically.
6. Will be re-instated within three years after lapse, if you are in good health.
7. No Restrictions.

8. Incontestable. Dividends are payable at the beginning of the second and of each succeeding year.

They may be used:

1. To reduce Premiums, or
2. To increase the Insurance, or
3. To Make Policy Payable as an Endowment during the Lifetime of Insured.

If the Policy Holder Fails to Pay Premiums in any year, whether from forgetfulness, illness, or from lack of money, the plans of a lifetime are not defeated, for his insurance does not cease. It protects him from the results of illness or forgetfulness, by its agreement to keep his insurance in force as long as the value of the policy will pay for.

(NOTE) Every member of the MUTUAL BENEFIT is SURE of fair and liberal treatment under ALL circumstances; and no matter what happens, he will get his money's worth in insurance, for it is all put down in black and white "in the policy."

—Ben Drake of 1107 North Tenth street, who was driving the tram struck by a Third street car yesterday, was slightly injured about the head. He suffered slightly from concussion, but is all right today. Dr. Robertson dressed the injury.

Drake alighted on his head in jumping from the wagon when he was struck.

DIDN'T KNOW ENGLISH.

BRIDE SPOKE ITALIAN—MARRIAGE AT PALMER TODAY.

Judge Emery married Louis Lapresta, aged 23, an Italian of St. Louis, to Margherita Lapresta, aged 22, of St. Louis. The couple are first cousins and arrived in the city from St. Louis last night. The marriage was performed at the Palmer House about 10:15 o'clock. The groom is a clerk by trade, and can speak fairly good English, but his wife can not speak a word in the English language other than a mere formal greeting.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Lelia Martin, of Greenville, Ky., sister of Attorney Arthur Y. Martin, of the city, to Dr. Edmund Reno Yost, of Providence, Ky., on the afternoon of December 23.

Mr. James R. Lowe and wife, who were married in Tennessee, are at the Palmer.

Mr. Jesse Walters and Miss Lottie Houston were married yesterday at the home of the bride near Jackson's Mill, Rev. Motley, of Heath, officiating.

About People And Social Notes.

Chief Justice J. H. Paynter, of Greenup, Ky., and his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Morton K. Yonts, of Greenville, Ky., spent Sunday in Paducah. Judge Paynter was here on private business.

Mr. Joe Woodruff, of Dawson Springs, is at the Palmer.

HAVE ARRIVED.

The Murray Comedy Co. arrived from Bowling Green yesterday afternoon and tonight at the Kentucky will open their engagement of one week by presenting "Nature's Nobleman."

All the old favorites of the park last summer are with the company, and Messrs. Howard Tremaine, Warren Catlin, Franklin Whitman, Fred Ellsworth and Elba Wright have been busy shaking hands with their old friends.

The company this season is much larger than ever and numbers twenty-two people and this week promises to be a banner one at the Kentucky.

Tonight the house will be packed as the advance sale is very large and at the prices ten, twenty and thirty cents, every one can have a pleasant week of witnessing plays at a nominal sum.

Welcome to the Murray Comedy Co. and its happy manager.

TRAINS ALL LATE.

RAILROADS HAVING A HARD TIME OBSERVING THE SCHEDULE.

All the trains on the Illinois Central have been delayed by snow and cold weather on the Memphis and Louisville divisions and on the St. Louis division by the washing away of the cradle at Brockport.

Yesterday the transfer boat left the wharf at 1:30 and made a trip to Brockport, where a train left at 5 o'clock for Carbondale. This was the only accommodation the road could afford the north travelers on account of the cradle accident. The cradle was washed away Saturday and all that day, all yesterday and today the wrecking crew has worked faithfully and by 3 o'clock this afternoon it is thought the cradle will be in place again and ready to do service.

Last night trains No. 101, 103 and 104 were late averaging about 20 minutes.

This morning the St. Louis sleeper, which has been brought into Paducah via Carbondale, was run via Fulton and brought to Paducah by the early accommodation train No. 137 en route to Louisville from Fulton. This was the first time the train has been run this way since the accident and will probably come in over the St. Louis division tomorrow as the cradle will have then been repaired.

The east bound train due at 11:30 today, was three hours late.

Don't fail to see our line of Xmas candies, the finest display in the city. Stutz.

Ethel Scott, the little stepdaughter of Mr. George Gardner, the sewerage inspector, is very ill of pneumonia.

For Xmas candies, don't fail to get our prices.

There will be no Christmas entertainments in the local public schools this year and this will make the first year that an entertainment of some kind has not been held.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Master Emmett Quick, the small son of Mrs. Marvin Quick, of Jefferson street, narrowly missed being seriously injured this morning at 10:30 o'clock near the Barry and Hennobler warehouse.

The child's mother was pulling it in a sled crossing the open commons, on which a tree stood burning. The tree is about one and one-half feet in diameter, and some boys had built a fire under it while skating yesterday evening. The tree had ignited, and when Mrs. Quick passed the tree fell and barely grazed the child. Aside from a few bruises, no injuries resulted from the accident.

SICK.

Captain Jimmie Owen, who has been ill for the past several days, is now able to sit up but is still confined to his room. His many friends will be pleased to learn of his recovery.

Mrs. Ann Woolfolk, who is ill of pneumonia, is better today.

Miss Fannie Woolfolk, who has been ill for several days, is improved today.

Mrs. Jesse M. Gilbert is improved from her recent illness.

Mrs. J. J. Allen, of South Second street, is ill.

Mrs. Tom Durrett is much improved today.

Candy, as well as the price, to suit everybody at Stutz's.

The reduction of the Illinois Central's passenger time between Sioux City and Chicago to fourteen hours and ten minutes, which went into effect yesterday, will precipitate, according to railroad men, a speed war between the Illinois Central, Milwaukee and the Northwestern roads.
